Blessing in Disguise would like to say a BIG thank you to Arthur Silcock of A L Silcock Fun Fairs, all the ride operators and travelling showmen/women and everyone else who helped to make these V.I.P days possible. Making a difference to all the children & young adults with life limiting illnesses & disabilities who attended.

We had a fantastic time and we hope you all did too. See you all at the next one!! Xx

We are currently helping an autistic 16 year old called Benzion who also suffers with global development delay, epilepsy and brittle bone disease. Due to his disabilities he cannot walk any distance and needs a paediatric wheelchair. The wheelchair he requires will improve his quality of life and reduce risk to those who care for him.

Also a big thank you to Paul Prescott For donating Wigan Comic-Con tickets for us to give to our family's. They all really enjoyed themselves it's very much appreciated
